

HOMEBOUND & ATTENDANCE SUPPORT

Students Experiencing Homelessness

A steady connection to learning when circumstances change.

THE CHALLENGE

Housing instability can disrupt school routines and access to learning. Your team needs academic support that adapts as students' circumstances change. Fullmind coordinates flexible instruction with district staff to help students stay connected.

How Fullmind helps

Maintain Academic Connection

Help students remain engaged with learning when housing changes interrupt school routines.

Respond to Changing Circumstances

Coordinate instruction around student needs, available technology, and district support plans.

Support Continued Academic Progress

Help students address learning gaps and continue working toward coursework and graduation goals.

3,000+

Certified educators

15.5+ yrs

Average classroom experience

7,000

Educator certifications

50 states

Where our educators live

How it works

1

Coordinate With District Staff

Review academic needs and access barriers with the district liaison or designated school team.

2

Build a Practical Learning Plan

Arrange academic support around available technology, scheduling, and student circumstances.

3

Maintain Communication

Share participation and learning updates so district teams can adjust support as circumstances change.

Scan to learn more

Why it matters Flexible academic support coordinated with school staff helps students maintain a connection to learning during housing instability.