Summer School

Guide

How to plan and staff summer programs when teachers need a break too.

Any subject

certified teachers from around the country, for summer programs and the school year.

WHAT DISTRICTS USE SUMMER SCHOOL FOR

Credit recovery, catching up on skills, preparing for the next grade, and enrichment courses students can't fit in during the year.

The challenge, and how Fullmind solves it

The challenge	With Fullmind
! Teachers need a break, too.	✓ Certified teachers from around the country for the courses you can't cover locally.
! Planning starts too late.	✓ An education consultant helps you build a plan around your goals and students.
! Too few courses to meet student needs.	✓ Courses in any subject you need, including credit recovery.
! No clear view of what summer accomplished.	✓ Attendance and progress data.

Why it matters Expand summer instructional capacity while helping students prepare for continued academic success.

4 questions to ask any provider

- 1 How early do we need to plan?
- 2 Which subjects can you staff?
- 3 Can you support credit recovery in summer?
- 4 What data will we receive?

How to fund it

Often Title I, Part A, 21st Century Community Learning Centers grants where available, and state and local funds. Check allowable uses with your federal programs coordinator.

What a good program looks like

- Certified teachers for every course
- Clear goals: credit recovery, catch-up or enrichment
- Schedules that fit summer
- Attendance and progress data
